

Regional Committee for the Defence of Human Rights in the Rio Guayabero and La Macarena, Meta.

2nd February 2011

Dear Comrades at Justice for Colombia,

I am writing to you from the regional prison in Villavicencio, patio Santander, cell N.Z.

A cordial greeting.

I thank you all for your immense solidarity, in recognition of the work that we have carried out to help a society which has been morally and psychologically mistreated and has had its constitutional rights violated. We, as human rights defenders, have been particular victims of this abuse which denies us the right to live in dignity.

Your greetings fill me with enthusiasm and pride and they give me strength to continue in our struggle to defend human rights and to achieve peace with social justice.

Thank you comrades from Justice for Colombia
A big hug, god bless you.

Yours sincerely,

Jose Samuel Rojas Mora
